

AT HOME AND ABROAD,

In fact, in every country of the globe where music is appreciated, the Victor Talking Machine has been pronounced perfect, because it is the only medium thru which the voices of the greatest singers of this century have been perfectly recorded, thereby giving pleasure to countless thousands who could not otherwise hear these glorious artists.

THE $100 VICTOR TALKING MACHINE

Is the finest home machine ever built. No music room should be without one. Prejudice against the machine exists only in the minds of those who have not heard it. The "Victor 6th" is no longer a mere novelty, like the old-style talking machine. It is SERIOUSLY RECOGNIZED BY MUSIC LOVERS As a musical instrument of great merit, reproducing all the beautiful quality of the original.

From the Throat of the Victor

Issue the voices of the most gifted singers of the world, including Caruso, Melba, Farrar, Eames, Gaski, Sembrich, Plancon, Campanari, Scotti and a host of others. Their beautiful, sympathetic voices are as distinct and melodious as when heard in concert or on the grand opera stage.

A LIFETIME OF PLEASURE

Is in store for the owner of a Victor Machine. It plays the best band and orchestra selections—it sings classic, popular, comic and sacred songs—it recites tragedy and comedy; in fact, it has an endless variety of high-class entertainment.

FOR THE SUMMER HOME—the cottage by the sea—the camp in the mountains—the yacht—the canoe—there's no more useful or helpful entertainer, and the original cost of a Victor is offset a thousand times by the pleasure it affords you.

BROWNSON NOW IN CHARGE

BECOMES CHIEF OF THE BUREAU OF NAVIGATION.

Rear Admiral Willard Herbert Brownson, lately in command of the Asiatic fleet, today relieved Rear Admiral George A. Converse as chief of the bureau of navigation. The appointment is one personal to the President almost, as he has for years had a close acquaintance with Admiral Brownson and has conceived a high opinion of his professional abilities.

Other Bureau Changes.
The bureau of navigation today also obtained a new assistant by the relief of Capt. W. P. Potter by Commander C. J. Badger, lately chief of staff for Rear Admiral Brownson on the Asiatic station. Capt. Potter has made an excellent record as assistant chief of the bureau of navigation, in recognition of which he has been given command of one of the finest vessels in the navy, the new battleship Vermont, which has just gone into commission at Boston.

Prospective changes in the bureau are the relief of Lieutenant Commander Thos. Washington by Lieut. Rufus J. Johnston, Jr., the relief of Lieut. Rufus J. Johnston, Jr., by Lieut. Needham L. Jones. Lieut. Sellers and Jones were aids to Rear Admiral Brownson when he commanded the Asiatic fleet, and they accompanied him home to the United States. Commander Washington will probably be given command of the U. S. Dolphin, this station. Lieut. Johnston will be attached to the new battleship Minnesota, now at the Norfolk navy yard.

Admiral Converse Praised.

A remarkable tribute to the services of a naval officer was today paid by Secretary Metcalf to Rear Admiral Converse, when upon the occasion of his relinquishment of his position as chief of the bureau which he has held since March 20, 1906, he appointed him president of the board on construction.

Secretary Metcalf stated that he was impelled to make this appointment because he regarded the admiral's services as almost indispensable to the navy, in view of his detailed knowledge of almost every branch of the service, line and staff, and his complete devotion to the development of the navy. Secretary Metcalf announced that in addition to the recognition he had accorded the admiral through his appointment, President Roosevelt had sent him a letter in which he expressed his deep regret at the necessity of relieving him of the duties of chief of the bureau of navigation and paid a high tribute to the work he had accomplished in behalf of the navy during the time he had filled that post.
